

Owl's Nest Little Owl Application

Sioux Center Public Library

The Sioux Center Public Library invites you to become an Owl's Nest Little Owl. This is a reading partnership program designed for children TK to 4th grade. This program pairs a child with a student or adult volunteer for a one-on-one reading experience. You will be reading together at an agreed upon time in the library at least once a week. If you would like to be part of this program, please fill out both sides of the following application so we can match you with a volunteer.
